

SENATE CHAMBER,

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

August 7th, 1894.

Mrs. James C. Booth,

Haverford, Pa.

My dear Madam:-

I have your letter of the 6th instant. The bill for your relief is now pending in the Senate Committee on Finance and I have asked the Acting Chairman of that Committee, Senator Harris, to do what he can to expedite its consideration there.

Yours very truly,

MS Lucy
